Chilliwack Community Services

Better at Home

Better at Home is a program that values independence and healthy aging.

Better at Home coordinates screened volunteers and paid contractors to assist seniors with:

- Light Housekeeping
- Medical Transportation
- Light Yardwork
- Grocery Shopping

Better at Home is a community initiative managed by the United Way of the Lower Mainland and funded by the Government of British Columbia. Better at Home offers supplemental, non-medical services subsidized on a sliding scale determined by annual income.

Eligibility: If you are age 65 or older, residing in Chilliwack, you may be eligible for services. Priority will be given to those who have mobility challenges.

A Community Partnership

Better at Home is funded by the Government of British Columbia.

More details about the program can be found at: www.comserv.bc.ca/seniors, or by emailing betterathome@comserv.bc.ca.
